
A “Grand” Summer Experience

Tour builds links Between generations

Looking for a fun way to generations, the Older Adult of the Mid-Atlantic came up Expectations.” This was the for grandparents and

In June nine pilgrims and Scotland together. They and continued north and east to Edinburgh, and west across the western coast of Scotland. Christianity and its roots, Cuthbert, Bede and Columba.

“It was a wonderful moderator of the General grandson, John Ellis. Winn says for the things they saw on the on to him gobs of family lore. duration!”

Grand Expectations 2001 is already set for July 9-20. The tour is limited to 12 participants, but applicants from any synod in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) are welcome. For more information contact Jan McGilliard, associate for older adult ministries by phone (540/552-3233) or e-mail (jmcgill@bev.net), or visit the Older Adult Ministries page on the synod’s Web site (www.synatlantic.org.)

Jan McGilliard

“Grand Expectations”: Aboard a steamboat on Lake Windemere

strengthen the bonds between Ministries Committee of the Synod with a real winner: “Grand title they gave to a special study tour grandchildren (age 14 and older). spent two weeks touring England began in the English Lake District Holy Island (Lindisfarne), highlands to the Isle of Iona, off the Participants studied Celtic visiting the haunts of the early saints experience.” Says Al Winn, a former Assembly, who traveled with his his grandson shared his enthusiasm trip. “He was interested, so I passed We’re knit together for the

Reprinted from Presbyterians Today
October, 2000